INSERT DEPT OF AG LETTER

POLICY OF CHELSEA COMMUNITY FAIR
CONCERNING THE USE OF THE GROUNDS DURING THE ANNUAL FAIR
BY RELIGIOUS, POLITICAL, AND PUBLIC INTEREST GROUPS

The purpose of this policy is to accommodate religious, political, and public interest groups, candidates, and their representatives who desire to use the fair grounds during the annual Chelsea Community Fair in harmony with the other participants and to keep public order. All persons or groups desiring to use the fair grounds during the annual fair for religious, political, or public interest activities including solicitation and dissemination of literature, information or propaganda shall comply with the following rules and regulations:

1. All such religious, political, and public interest persons and groups shall register two weeks prior to the first day of the fair, with the office of the fair manager before commencement of their activities.
2. All such persons and groups shall pay the normal admission price to the fair.
3. All such persons and groups shall limit their activities to those areas which are normally open to the public.
4. All such persons and groups shall restrict their activities to the normal hours of the fair's operation.
5. All such persons and groups shall limit their activities to those areas where flow of traffic will not be impeded and where a safety hazard shall not be caused. The decision of the fair manager in designating the areas open to such activities shall be final.
6. All such persons and groups shall wear identification insignia.
7. Such persons and groups shall not solicit any donations or distribute or disseminate any information, literature or propaganda in the grandstand, ticket lines, exhibit areas, or any other area of the fair where the public is gathered in a restricted traffic area, or otherwise constitutes "a captive audience".
8. All such persons or groups shall not touch another person without his or her consent.

STATE OF MICHIGAN
COUNTY OF WASHTENAW

I, Jeanne Trinkle, Secretary of the Chelsea Community Fair Board do hereby certify that the within policy was adopted by Resolution of the Board of Directors of the Chelsea Community Fair, on the 16th day of March, 2006, and that such policy is effective until otherwise terminated or amended by the Board of Directors.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

All exhibitors are subject to these rules (where they apply) and any changes.

Exhibitors are requested to volunteer their services to the superintendents for building set-up, clean-up, barn duty and overseeing of exhibits

1. All exhibits are open to everyone. However, the Fair Board reserves the right to refuse any entry not considered suitable, and, in the case of limited space, superintendents reserve the right to select exhibits. In the event of only two entries, the Judge reserves the right to combine two classes. Superintendent and Fair Board reserve the right to create or delete any or all classes, per discretion.
2. All entries must be made by, grown by or owned by the exhibitor. Entries must be a product of the past year or current season. No article may have been shown previously at the Chelsea Community Fair. An exception to the above rule may be found in the Floriculture Department, where a previously shown plant, with new growth, may be exhibited.
3. No one exhibitor may enter more than one article in each class, with the exception of the Poultry Department, Swine Department or Sheep Department.
4. Age of exhibitor is recognized as of August 31, unless specified different by club or department rules.
5. Rules and regulations for exhibits in the Green Building may be found at the beginning of premium lists for each department.
6. Exhibits must be properly identified. Entry Tags (available at the Fair Office) must accompany all exhibits.
7. Removal of exhibits will not be permitted in any area before 9:00 a.m. on Sunday, August 27th. Entries left after 11:00 a.m. without prior arrangements with the superintendent are left at the responsibility of the owner.
8. All livestock exhibitors must call the Superintendent of the Department by August 3rd to arrange for exhibit space.
9. All livestock must be entered before 12:00 Noon on Tuesday, August 22nd.
10. All livestock exhibitors shall comply with the State Health Requirements printed in this book.
11. Each livestock exhibitor may show and sell a maximum of two (2) species.
12. Each individual exhibitor assumes all risk in exhibiting livestock and all other exhibits. Although reasonable precautions will be taken, the Chelsea Community Fair will not be responsible for any accident or loss. Ribbons are the responsibility and property of the exhibitor once awarded. Ribbons are given for all class placings.
13. Season Passes, Student Passes and Senior Citizen Passes (65 years and older) will be available at the Fair Service Center Office or may be purchased at the Gate.
14. Exhibitor Passes (for exhibitors of large livestock) will be available at the Fair Service Center office only. Only one (1) exhibitor pass will be sold per family.

15. Decisions and rulings made by the Judge or Superintendent are final. However, protests may be made in writing and accompanied by a $200.00 deposit. Protests will be accepted until the close of the Fair and considered within 10 days at a meeting of the Chelsea Fair Board. If supported, the deposit will be returned. In the event the outcome is not to the satisfaction of the protesting party, a protest may be filed with Michigan Department of Ag within 45 days of the initial complaint.
16. All premiums will be paid at the Fair Service Center Office (unless otherwise posted). Hours for payment will be posted. Please use your full name and correct address on your Entry Tags which must accompany your exhibit (available at Fair Office). All checks for premiums are void after 30 days.
17. No premium will be paid on breeds or articles not listed in the Fair Premium Book.
18. Promiscuous advertising is strictly prohibited. Exhibitors may advertise and distribute from their places of exhibit only. The distribution of advertising matter that conflicts in any manner with a space sold by the management is prohibited.
19. No exhibitor or concessionaire will be permitted to sublet or share any portion of the space allotted him. A violation of this rule will result in the original purchaser of space forfeiting all his rights and eviction of himself, partners, employees and wares from the Fairgrounds.
20. All Superintendents serve under the direction of the Chelsea Fair Board. All Superintendents shall be subject to a current fair year evaluation and appointment as a Superintendent for the next year's fair by the Chelsea Community Fair Board.
21. No coolers allowed on the grounds.
22. No pets allowed on the grounds.
22. ABSOLUTELY NO OVERNIGHT CAMPING ALLOWED ON THE FAIRGROUNDS.

MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
ANIMAL INDUSTRY DIVISION

Revised February 2006

2006 HEALTH REQUIREMENTS FOR *LIVESTOCK EXHIBITED IN MICHIGAN

(SUMMARY --- Extended version on file in Fair Office)

* Livestock means those species of animals used for human food and fiber or those species of animals used for service to humans. Livestock includes but is not limited to cattle, sheep, new world camelids (llamas, alpacas, vicunas, and guanacos), goats, bison, captive cervidae, ratites (cassowaries, kiwis, ostriches, and emus), swine, equine, poultry, aquaculture, and rabbits. Livestock does not include dogs and cats.

GENERAL

Exhibitors at State, County, and District fairs, along with other livestock exhibitions, expositions, and shows, are required to comply with all of the statutory and regulatory provisions of the State of Michigan relating to animal health outlined in Act No. 466 of the Public Acts of 1988, as amended and rules promulgated for the implementation and enforcement of the act.

1. The following is a summary of the requirements for livestock exhibited in Michigan. The full version of the requirements can be downloaded from the website www.michigan.gov/mda-exhibitinfo or you can contact the fair livestock entry office for a complete set.
2. A fair shall have an accredited veterinarian on call whenever there are animals on the premises during the fair. A fair, exhibition, exposition, or show authority shall do all of the following:
  - a. Notify exhibitors of health tests and certificates required for importation and exhibition in this state.
  - b. Examine and approve required health certificates, reports, test charts, certificates, or other required documentation before displaying, exhibiting, or stabling the animals in the exhibition area or before commingling with other animals.
  - c. Provide shipping arrangements for all swine exhibited that are to be removed from the fair, exhibition, exposition, or show facility for direct movement to slaughter or a livestock auction market.
  - d. Notify exhibitors whether or not poultry vaccinated against Infectious Laryngotracheitis (ILT) are allowed in the fair, exhibition or exposition.
  - e. Assure that all participating equine test negative for Equine Infectious Anemia (EIA)
3. Livestock with clinical signs of infectious, contagious, or toxicological disease shall be removed from the fair, exhibition, or exposition, or by permission of the director, shall be isolated on the premises. Livestock that have known exposure to, or that show clinical signs of, infectious, contagious, or toxicological disease, as determined by a veterinarian shall not be displayed or housed at an exhibition, exposition, or fair unless permission to do so is granted by the director. The exhibition, exposition, fair or show authority is responsible for ensuring that the livestock are removed from the premises.
4. A fair, exhibition, exposition, or show authority may require additional testing or vaccination of animals before entry and during the fair, exhibition, exposition, or show.
5. A bird shall not be handled except by the exhibitor, attendant, fair veterinarian, director, or judge after the bird is placed in an exhibition coop.
6. All cattle, goats, sheep and privately-owned cervids shall bear official identification before they leave their home premises.
7. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to ensure that all requirements for testing, identification, and official interstate health certificate or official interstate certificate of veterinary inspection are fulfilled prior to importation and that proof of fulfilling these requirements is provided to the director, fair, exhibition, exposition, or show authority upon request
8. Upon request, a person who exhibits livestock shall present for inspection all reports, test charts, and appropriate health certificates required to accompany the livestock.
9. Out of state livestock for exhibition shall meet the requirements prescribed for importation of breeding animals of that species and shall be accompanied by a copy of an official interstate health certificate or an official interstate certificate of veterinary inspection issued by an accredited veterinarian from the state of origin. Livestock shall not be diverted to premises other than the destination site named on the official interstate health certificate.
10. Whenever an official test is conducted or an official vaccination is administered, livestock shall, unless exempted by the director, be permanently identified in a manner approved by the director.

11. Unless otherwise approved by the director, a facility for exhibition of livestock shall be constructed to allow sufficient separation of each exhibitor's livestock. The facility shall be constructed of a material that can be adequately cleaned and disinfected.
12. An exhibition building or yarding facility shall be cleaned and disinfected with an United States Department of Agriculture approved disinfectant used in accordance with label instructions before livestock are admitted by removing from the premises all manure, litter, hay, straw, and forage from pens, runways and show rings, and thoroughly disinfecting walls, partitions, floors, mangers, awarding facilities, and runways in a manner approved by the director. MDA is currently using Virkon S for field activities. For a complete list of disinfectants, please refer to www.michigan.gov/mda-exhibitinfo.
13. Feed and water containers provided for exhibition coops shall be new or properly cleaned.
14. A feed or water container from which a bird has eaten or drunk shall be refilled to prevent contamination of the common supply of feed and water. A feed or water container may not be removed from an exhibition coop except for the purpose of cleaning.
15. An exhibition coop shall be thoroughly cleaned and disinfected before and after each exhibition.
16. An exhibition coop shall be constructed and placed to provide adequate light for proper inspection of poultry for evidence of transmissible diseases.
17. Litter for an exhibition coop shall be clean and shall be replaced daily, or as often as needed.
18. A shipping crate used in the shipment of birds by common carrier may not be used as an exhibition coop. Shipping crates shall be cleaned and disinfected on the day of arrival after the birds have been removed for exhibition and before being used again. Unless otherwise necessary, shipping crates shall not be stored in the exhibition area.

2006 OUT OF STATE LIVESTOCK FOR EXHIBITION
(SUMMARY --- Extended version on file in Fair Office)

Out of state livestock for exhibition shall meet the requirements prescribed for importation of breeding animals of that species and shall be accompanied by an official interstate health certificate or an official interstate certificate of veterinary inspection issued by an accredited veterinarian from the state of origin. Livestock shall not be diverted to a premises other than the destination site named on the official interstate health certificate.

If vesicular stomatitis outbreaks have occurred in the state of origin within the past 30 days, the following statement must be included by the accredited veterinarian on any official interstate health certificate or official certificate of veterinary inspection for importation of equidae, cattle, sheep, goats, bison, New World camelids, swine, or privately owned cervidae into Michigan:

"I have examined the animals listed on this certificate and have found no clinical signs of vesicular stomatitis. To the best of my knowledge, these animals have not been exposed to vesicular stomatitis within the previous 30 days, no have they been vaccinated with vesicular stomatitis vaccine."

All cattle, goats, and bison of any age and reproductive capability, unless transported directly to a USDA inspected slaughter facility, must be identified with a USDA approved official identification eartag, or official breed registration tattoo, prior to importation. An official breed registration tattoo may only be used if the animal is accompanied by the official breed registration certificate during the movement. The official identification must be recorded on the required official interstate health certificate or official certificate of veterinary inspection.

Dairy cattle, breeding cattle, feeder heifers, horses and other equidae, breeding swine, feeder swine, market hogs, llamas, alpacas, privately-owned cervidae, aquaculture, and wild animals for exhibition originating outside the state of Michigan shall meet the requirements found at www.michigan.gov/mda-exhibitinfo or you can contact the fair livestock entry office for a complete set.

State Veterinarian and Animal Industry Division Director

DEPARTMENT A - AGRICULTURAL EXHIBITS
Debbie and Melissa Stapish, Mike Phillips, Superintendents

This Division is open to amateurs and/or professionals. The purpose of this exhibit is to offer an opportunity to bring together in one group the important horticultural crops and agricultural products which are produced on farms in our area. The exhibit may include, but is not limited to, a collection of fruits, vegetables, flowers, honey, jams, jellies, canned fruit and/or fruit juices, and other agricultural products grown by the truck farmer, market gardener, or roadside stand exhibitor.

These exhibits will be put up at the discretion and taste of the exhibitor. All exhibit materials must be furnished by the exhibitor. Judging will be based on the variety of vegetables, fruits, etc., range of species and quality. Originality will be considered. The exhibit space will be limited to an area with a minimum of four (4) feet of frontage and four (4) feet of depth and not larger than six (6) feet of frontage and four (4) feet of depth. This may be adjusted depending upon availability at the time of registration.

These exhibitors must pre-register no later than Thursday, August 3rd by phoning Debbie Stapish at 734-913-4651. Entry time for these exhibits will be Sunday August 20 from 9 a.m to 5 p.m. ENTRIES WILL ONLY BE REMOVED ON SUNDAY, AUGUST 27, 2006 FROM 9:00 A.M. TO 11:00 A.M.
